

CALLING ALL PRINCIPALS!

We're excited to offer you and your entire school the chance to connect with America's top winter athletes as part of the February edition of Classroom Champions' Student Champion Chats! Our athlete mentors will talk about the importance of Goal-Setting, share their experiences and inspire the next generation with their examples of hard work, dedication and perseverance.

1. SIGN UP NOW AND GET STARTED TODAY!

- Register to participate in the live chat at www.StudentChampionChats.org.
- Bookmark www.StudentChampionChats.org and follow Classroom Champions on Facebook and Twitter to stay up to date on the latest updates on the live chat and news about our athlete mentors.
- Challenge fellow educators to join you and your school in participating:
 - Tell your colleagues about the chat, and encourage the rest of your school district to participate.
 - Talk to your friends, email this one-sheet to your peers and share the live chat on social media.
 - Challenge others to join and be the reason more students across America take part!

2. GET READY FOR THE CHAT, UTILIZE OUR ATHLETE LESSON MATERIALS AND BUILD EXCITEMENT AND LEARNING!

- Learn more about the Classroom Champions athlete mentors and their sports by visiting our partners at www.SportsEngine.com and www.NBCSports.com.
- Utilize Classroom Champions athlete lesson plans—written by teachers, for teachers—that cover Goal Setting, Teamwork, Perseverance, and Diversity. Our athlete mentors have filmed video lessons and classroom challenges on each topic as well!
- Encourage your teachers to talk about Goal-Setting in class, and prepare questions for the athlete mentors on the live chat. Tweet your questions to us before the chat using #CClivechats. Several lucky classrooms will be chosen to ask their questions live during the chat!

3. ON THE DAY OF THE CHAT, JOIN SCHOOLS NATIONWIDE TO CONNECT LIVE WITH TOP AMERICAN ATHLETES

- Gather your entire school in the gym or auditorium to stream the Student Champion Chat live!
- Engage students by decorating your gym, auditorium or class, wearing Classroom Champions or USA themed gear, making signs for the athletes and other activities.

4. AFTER THE CHAT, KEEP THE MOMENTUM GOING!

- At the end of the chat, the athlete mentors will issue a challenge relating to the topic of Goal-Setting to the students. Tweet about your school's learning and response to the challenge using #CClivechats and tag @ClassroomChamps. Tag those mentors too!
- Apply for our yearlong programming! If you liked our quarterly live chat, consider enrolling in our ongoing programming for the 2018-2019 school year here. Our structured, holistic scaled mentorship programs integrate lessons like Goal-Setting, Leadership, and Community Involvement into local curriculum; train and provide around the clock support to teachers; and engage families to be a part of the conversation. Classroom Champions has matched over 125 athlete mentors with more than 25,000 students across North America. Your school could be next!
